Today's Readings

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

The Collect of the Day

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds* to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Gradual Psalm 23

- I shall not be in want.
- <sup>2</sup> He makes me lie down in green pastures *
and leads me beside still waters.
- <sup>3</sup> He revives my soul *
and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.
- <sup>4</sup> Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil; * for you are with me; your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.
- <sup>5</sup> You spread a table before me in the presence
of those who trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup is running over.
- <sup>6</sup> Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, *
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Second Reading 1 Peter 2:19-25

For it is to your credit if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, where is the credit in that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps. 'He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.' When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Gospel Reading John 10:1-10

'Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.' Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.'

Adult Forum in Easter

“I Will Bless You, and You Will Be a Blessing”

A Conversation on Marriage at the Cathedral of Saint James

In 2015, The General Convention of the Episcopal Church authorized rites for same-sex marriage for use in dioceses where the local Bishop permitted their use. At the same time, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled against laws prohibiting same-sex marriage, thus making it legal throughout the country. Last year Bishop Sparks issued a pastoral letter indicating he would extend the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony to same-sex couples in our diocese. The Bishop also required that congregations must first engage in a process of discernment in an effort to develop consensus among the Body of Christ gathered in each faith community. The Cathedral of Saint James has long strived to be a welcoming and affirming congregation, but now that same-sex marriage is no longer an abstraction and members of the Cathedral community have requested this sacrament, it is time for us to take up this question formally.

During Eastertide, our adult forum will focus on the five discussion topics in I Will Bless You, and You Will Be a Blessing, a study document that was prepared for the Special Committee on Marriage at the General Convention in 2015 and later adapted for broader use. The entire document is available free in pdf format online. Additionally, Bishop Sparks and Dean Grantz will offer a presentation on the theology of same-sex marriage on the evening of Wednesday, May 10, from 6-7 pm. All of these conversations will inform the Cathedral Chapter in their discernment as we move towards this new sacramental possibility in our community.

Notes & News

The flowers adorning our worship this morning are offered by Deborah & Stephen Drendall to the Glory of God, and in thanksgiving for their grandson, Benjamin Leo Saar, and his baptism.

The Cathedral of Saint James is once again helping to coordinate an Interfaith Service of Prayer. We have been asked by the organizers of the South Bend's Best Week Ever to host a prayer service at Howard Park. Plans are progressing to gather many faith communities on Sunday, June 4 which is for us, fittingly, the Day of Pentecost.

There will be a Shortcakes on the Blacktop Meeting for all committee leaders and interested volunteers immediately following the 10:15 service today.

Our next Soup after School event will take place Tuesday, May 16 from 4-6 pm at Holy Trinity Church. Donations of soup, finger fruits/veggies, dessert, and drinks are needed, as well as adults to work the children. Mtr. Terri Bays says the children will be planting flowers in the tires they painted.

Second Quarter Care & Share:

The Food Bank of Northern Indiana

In May 1993, United Religious Community of St. Joseph County's Hunger Education Task Force accepted the challenge of reestablishing food banking services in north central Indiana. Our first distribution of 6,800 pounds was made in December 1993 to 29 agencies. As our member agencies and donor base grew, we became self-sufficient and large enough to be considered for national certification. In 2006, our organization's name was changed to the Food Bank of Northern Indiana serving Elkhart, LaPorte, Kosciusko, Marshall, Starke and St. Joseph Counties. In 2016, the Food Bank of Northern Indiana distributed nearly 7 million pounds of food to our network of 200 member agencies in our six-county service area.

Today, 14% of northern Indiana residents are food insecure; they don't know when they will eat their next meal. This epidemic is silent. When all residents have food security and access to nutritious foods, we will be even better physically and mentally prepared to take on life's challenges.

Contributions-to-Date: $155

Fr. Brian Grantz will be out of the office attending a CREDO conference from May 2—8. CREDO, which is sponsored by the Church Pension Fund, provides an opportunity for clergy (those vested in the pension fund) to reflect on personal, vocational, spiritual, and financial matters. While Fr. Brian is away, urgent pastoral needs should be directed to Deacon Anne Wietstock at (574) 286-4215.

The next monthly meeting of the Ecumenical Bible Study will take place Sunday, June 4, at the Culbertson home—52974 Parker Drive, South Bend—beginning at 12:30 pm. This meeting will study of John 21. All are welcome. Interested? Please speak with Hal or Rhonda Culbertson.

Raising Cane, a Bible Study for senior citizens (and anyone else) meets Tuesday, May 9, from 10:15—11:30 am on the third floor at St. Margaret's House.
