Today's Readings

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

The Collect of the Day

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading Acts 17:22-31

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, 'Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, "To an unknown god." What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For "In him we live and move and have our being"; as even some of your own poets have said,

"For we too are his offspring."

Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.'

Gradual Psalm 66:7-18

- 7 Bless our God, you peoples; *
make the voice of his praise to be heard;
- 8 Who holds our souls in life, *
and will not allow our feet to slip.
- 9 For you, O God, have proved us; *
you have tried us just as silver is tried.
- 10 You brought us into the snare; *
you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.
- 11 You let enemies ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water; *
but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.
- 12 I will enter your house with burnt offerings and will pay you my vows, * which I promised with my lips and spoke with my mouth when I was in trouble.

Today's Readings continued

---

- <sup>13</sup> I will offer you sacrifices of fat beasts with the smoke of rams; *
I will give you oxen and goats.
- <sup>14</sup> Come and listen, all you who fear God, *
and I will tell you what he has done for me.
- <sup>15</sup> I called out to him with my mouth, *
and his praise was on my tongue.
- <sup>16</sup> If I had found evil in my heart, *
the Lord would not have heard me;
- <sup>17</sup> But in truth God has heard me; *
he has attended to the voice of my prayer.
- <sup>18</sup> Blessed be God, who has not rejected my prayer, *
nor withheld his love from me.

Second Reading 1 Peter 3: 13-22

Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an account of the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God's will, than to suffer for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight people, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you—not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

Gospel Reading John 15-21

Jesus said, 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

'I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.'

Adult Forum in Easter

“I Will Bless You, and You Will Be a Blessing”

A Conversation on Marriage at the Cathedral of Saint James

The Cathedral of Saint James has long strived to be a welcoming and affirming congregation to all who come seeking God’s presence and the ministry of the Church. Given that same-sex marriage is available in the Diocese of Northern Indiana, legal in all 50 states, and has been requested by members of our congregation, we are now engaged in a process of discerning how the Cathedral will expand Sacramental ministry to same-sex couples.

During Eastertide, our Sunday morning adult forum is focusing on the discussion topics in I Will Bless You, and You Will Be a Blessing, a study document that was prepared the General Convention in 2015. Additionally, the same material is being taken up on Wednesday evenings from 6—6:45 pm in Cathedral Hall. All of these conversations will inform the Cathedral Chapter in their discernment as we move towards this new sacramental possibility in our community.

Notes & News

The flowers adorning our worship this morning are offered by Betsy VanderBurg to the Greater Glory of God and in loving honor of Nancy VanderBurg, Gene Graham, Bob & Margaret Ruhoff, and Carl & Mildred VanderBurg.

The Cathedral of Saint James is once again helping to coordinate an Interfaith Service of Prayer. We have been asked by the organizers of the South Bend's Best Week Ever to host a prayer service at Howard Park. Plans are progressing to gather many faith communities on Sunday, June 4 which is for us, fittingly, the Day of Pentecost.

Raising Cane, a Bible Study for senior citizens (and anyone else) meets Tuesday, May 23, from 10:15—11:30 am on the third floor at St. Margaret's House. Bring a snack to share (if you wish) and enjoy the fellowship and wisdom of this wonderful group!

The Ecumenical Bible Study next meets on Sunday, June 4, at the Culbertson home—52974 Parker Drive, South Bend—beginning at 12:30 pm. This month we will study John 21. All are welcome. Interested? Please speak with Hal or Rhonda Culbertson.

Second Quarter Care & Share:

The Food Bank of Northern Indiana

In May 1993, United Religious Community of St. Joseph County's Hunger Education Task Force accepted the challenge of reestablishing food banking services in north central Indiana. Our first distribution of 6,800 pounds was made in December 1993 to 29 agencies. As our member agencies and donor base grew, we became self-sufficient and large enough to be considered for national certification. In 2006, our organization's name was changed to the Food Bank of Northern Indiana serving Elkhart, LaPorte, Kosciusko, Marshall, Starke and St. Joseph Counties. In 2016, the Food Bank of Northern Indiana distributed nearly 7 million pounds of food to our network of 200 member agencies in our six-county service area.

Today, 14% of northern Indiana residents are food insecure; they don't know when they will eat their next meal. This epidemic is silent. When all residents have food security and access to nutritious foods, we will be even better physically and mentally prepared to take on life's challenges.

Contributions-to-Date: $255

The Lambelet family invites members of the Cathedral to join them for a hootenanny on Sunday, May 21, from 4:30-6:30 to celebrate Kyle's graduation and to send them off right to Atlanta later this summer. Bring a banjo, fiddle, guitar, mandolin, spoons, washboard, saw, jawharp, or your instrument of choice and your favorite sing-along-song. If you're not musically inclined, they'll have the fixins for ice cream sundaes and some other snacks. The event is at the Beichner Community Center at 100 University Village Dr., Notre Dame, IN.
