The Day of Pentecost

The Collect of the Day

O God, who on this day taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

"In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit
upon all flesh,

and your sons and your daughters
shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves,
both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents
in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire,
and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's
great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Gradual Psalm 104:25-35; 37

- ²⁵ O Lord how manifold are your works!*
In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
- ²⁶ Yonder is the great and wide sea, with its living things too many to number,*
creatures both small and great.
- ²⁷ There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan,*
which you made for the sport of it.
- ²⁸ All of them look to you*
to give them their food in due season;
- ²⁹ You give it to them; they gather it;*
you open your hand, and they are filled
with good things.
- ³⁰ You hide your face and they are terrified;*
you take away their breath, and they die
and return to their dust.
- ³¹ You send forth your spirit and they are created;*
and so you renew the face of the earth.
- ³² May the glory of the Lord
endure forever;*
may the Lord rejoice in all his works.
- ³³ He looks at the earth and it trembles;*
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
- ³⁴ I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;*
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
- ³⁵ May these words of mine please him:*
I will rejoice in the Lord.
- ³⁷ Bless the Lord, O my soul.*
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

No one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Gospel Reading John 7:37-39

On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, 'Let anyone who is thirsty come to me, and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, "Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water." ' Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

The Vocation of Discipleship

In the midst of our busy lives it can be difficult to hear God's call. Laundry piles up, friends and children need tending to, work is demanding. How do we know what God is calling us to? What does it mean to be a follower of God's call in our life given these worldly demands? What is the relationship between God's call to salvation and to faithfulness in our daily lives?

Over the summer, we will be asking these questions by consulting three sources of God's call in our lives: scripture, sacrament, and saints. We'll start by looking to scripture for stories of conversion of life. Scripture is full of rich, ambiguous characters who, in their ambiguity, make it possible for us to imagine ourselves being called by God into new life. Such callings are often not easy, but these stories of conversion reveal the joy and fullness of life that comes with responding to God's call. Next we'll take up the sacraments as means of grace. The sacraments, like the stories of conversion in scripture, are formative and reveal God's call for us. We'll take up Baptism, Eucharist, and Reconciliation as three formative practices that invite us into the vocation of discipleship. Finally, we'll look at the strange and (extra) ordinary lives of some of the saints who populate our liturgical calendar. We'll ask, who are these people? And in asking we'll look for the ways that God called them into lives of discipleship.

Notes & News

The flowers adorning our worship this morning are offered to the Greater Glory of God and in loving memory of Janis Elizabeth Ross by Joe Ross and in loving memory of The Rev. Canon Dr. Leonel & Mrs. Beverly Mitchell by their children: Anne Gair-MacMichael & David Mitchell.

Did you know? The prayer over the water in the baptismal rite in the 1979 Prayer Book—“We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water...”—is the work of Fr. Leonel Mitchell, who was a canon of this Cathedral and beloved member of our community for many years.

The Ecumenical Bible Study meets today, Sunday, June 4, at the home of Hal & Rhonda Culbertson—52974 Parker Drive, South Bend—beginning at 12:30 pm. This afternoon we will study John 21. All are welcome. Interested? Please speak with Hal or Rhonda Culbertson.

Congratulations to Emma Smith, daughter of Paul Schultz and Margaret Forster, on her achievement and honor as one of the valedictorians for the Penn High School class of 2017! Way to go, Emma!

Mission & Ministry

Second Quarter Care & Share:

The Food Bank of Northern Indiana

In May 1993, United Religious Community of St. Joseph County's Hunger Education Task Force accepted the challenge of reestablishing food banking services in north central Indiana. Our first distribution of 6,800 pounds was made in December 1993 to 29 agencies. As our member agencies and donor base grew, we became self-sufficient and large enough to be considered for national certification. In 2006, our organization's name was changed to the Food Bank of Northern Indiana serving Elkhart, LaPorte, Kosciusko, Marshall, Starke and St. Joseph Counties. In 2016, the Food Bank of Northern Indiana distributed nearly 7 million pounds of food to our network of 200 member agencies in our six-county service area.

Today, 14% of northern Indiana residents are food insecure; they don't know when they will eat their next meal. This epidemic is silent. When all residents have food security and access to nutritious foods, we will be even better physically and mentally prepared to take on life's challenges.

Contributions-to-Date: $305

Following our Adult Forum series on Marriage and years of prayer, conversation, and deliberation, the Cathedral Chapter will consider the extending the Sacrament of Marriage to same-sex couples within the Cathedral community at our next meeting: Tuesday, June 27. An open hearing on the subject inviting any and all to express their positions will be held that evening beginning at 6:30 pm in the sanctuary. Please pray as we continue to discern God's will.

Building Project Update. Our architect, Joe Dzierla, sent bid packages to local contractors last week. A pre-bid conference with the architect and interested bidders will take place tomorrow morning at 9:30 am. Please say prayers for favorable bids. We know we will need to raise more money before we can proceed with construction—we currently have just over $500,000.00 in the Heritage & Hope Fund, so please pray for imagination, creativity, and generosity.
