Trinity Sunday

The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading Genesis 1:1-2:4a

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, 'Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.' So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, 'Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.' And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, 'Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.' And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, 'Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.' And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, 'Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.' So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.' And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.' And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, 'Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.' So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.' God said, 'See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.' And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

Gradual Canticle 13

Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers;
you are worthy of praise; glory to you.
Glory to you for the radiance of you holy Name;
we will praise you and highly exalt you
for ever.

Glory to you in the splendor of you temple;
on the throne of your majesty,
glory to you.

Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim;
we will praise you and highly exalt you
for ever.

Glory to you, beholding the depths;
in the high vault of heaven, glory to you.
Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit;
we will praise you and highly exalt you
for ever.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. one

Gospel Reading Matthew 28:16-20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

The Vocation of Discipleship

In the midst of our busy lives it can be difficult to hear God's call. Laundry piles up, friends and children need tending to, work is demanding. How do we know what God is calling us to? What does it mean to be a follower of God's call in our life given these worldly demands? What is the relationship between God's call to salvation and to faithfulness in our daily lives?

Over the summer, we will be asking these questions by consulting three sources of God's call in our lives: scripture, sacrament, and saints. We'll start by looking to scripture for stories of conversion of life. Scripture is full of rich, ambiguous characters who, in their ambiguity, make it possible for us to imagine ourselves being called by God into new life. Such callings are often not easy, but these stories of conversion reveal the joy and fullness of life that comes with responding to God's call. Next we'll take up the sacraments as means of grace. The sacraments, like the stories of conversion in scripture, are formative and reveal God's call for us. We'll take up Baptism, Eucharist, and Reconciliation as three formative practices that invite us into the vocation of discipleship. Finally, we'll look at the strange and (extra) ordinary lives of some of the saints who populate our liturgical calendar. We'll ask, who are these people? And in asking we'll look for the ways that God called them into lives of discipleship.

Following our Adult Forum series on Marriage and years of prayer, conversation, and deliberation, the Cathedral Chapter will consider the extending the Sacrament of Marriage to same-sex couples within the Cathedral community at our next meeting: Tuesday, June 27. An open hearing on the subject inviting any and all to express their positions will be held that evening beginning at 6:30 pm in the sanctuary. Please pray as we continue to discern God's will.

Thank you to Steven Wietstock, Stephen Drendall, and Tim Gray for your assistance with the Interfaith Service of Prayer last Sunday and to all who came out to Howard Park on a warm Sunday evening to pray with those of other faiths and denominations. It was a wonderful event!

Mission & Ministry

Second Quarter Care & Share:

The Food Bank of Northern Indiana

In May 1993, United Religious Community of St. Joseph County's Hunger Education Task Force accepted the challenge of reestablishing food banking services in north central Indiana. Our first distribution of 6,800 pounds was made in December 1993 to 29 agencies. As our member agencies and donor base grew, we became self-sufficient and large enough to be considered for national certification. In 2006, our organization's name was changed to the Food Bank of Northern Indiana serving Elkhart, LaPorte, Kosciusko, Marshall, Starke and St. Joseph Counties. In 2016, the Food Bank of Northern Indiana distributed nearly 7 million pounds of food to our network of 200 member agencies in our six-county service area.

Today, 14% of northern Indiana residents are food insecure; they don't know when they will eat their next meal. This epidemic is silent. When all residents have food security and access to nutritious foods, we will be even better physically and mentally prepared to take on life's challenges.

Contractor's Bids Due Tuesday. Bids on construction of the Cathedral's addition and renovation are due to our architect, Joe Dzierla, on Tuesday morning. Our offices were hopping last week with a pre-bid meeting and contractors and subcontractors scouting our facilities and looking over plans in advance of their offers. Our Building Committee will meet on Wednesday evening, June 14, to receive the bids and begin our conversation about next steps. We expect that the plan, as drawn, will cost considerably more than we have in hand, necessitating additional fundraising both within the Cathedral congregation and beyond in our diocese and our community. Please keep this process in your prayers.

36 Bike & Build riders on the Northern US route will take up residence at the Cathedral on Monday, July 10, work on a house on in South Bend on July 11, and head out early on July 12. Watch for opportunities to help with hospitality!
