Today's Readings

The Third Sunday after Pentecost

The Collect of the Day

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading Genesis 21:8-21

The child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac. So she said to Abraham, 'Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac.' The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son. But God said to Abraham, 'Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named after you. As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring.' So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, 'Do not let me look on the death of the child.' And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept. And God heard the voice of the boy; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, 'What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid; for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him.' Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink. God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow. He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Gradual Psalm 86:1-10, 16-17

- <sup>1</sup> Bow down your ear, O Lord, and answer me, *
for I am poor and in misery.
- <sup>2</sup> Keep watch over my life,
for I am faithful; *
save your servant who puts his trust in you.

Today's Readings continued

- <sup>3</sup> Be merciful to me, O Lord,
for you are my God; *
I call upon you all the day long.
- <sup>4</sup> Gladden the soul of your servant, *
for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
- <sup>5</sup> For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, * and great is your love toward all who call upon you.
- <sup>6</sup> Give ear, O Lord, to my prayer, *
and attend to the voice
of my supplications.
- <sup>7</sup> In the time of my trouble
I will call upon you, *
for you will answer me.
- <sup>8</sup> Among the gods there is none like you,
O Lord, *
nor anything like your works.
- <sup>9</sup> All nations you have made will come and worship you, O Lord, *
and glorify your Name.
- <sup>10</sup> For you are great; you do wondrous things; *
and you alone are God.
- <sup>16</sup> Turn to me and have mercy upon me; *
give your strength to your servant;
and save the child of your handmaid.
- <sup>17</sup> Show me a sign of your favor, so that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed; *
because you, O Lord, have helped me
and comforted me.

Second Reading Romans 6:1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading Matthew 10:24-39

Jesus said to the twelve apostles, 'A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

'So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground unperceived by your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

'Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

'Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one's foes will be members of one's own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

The Vocation of Discipleship

In the midst of our busy lives it can be difficult to hear God's call. Laundry piles up, friends and children need tending to, work is demanding. How do we know what God is calling us to? What does it mean to be a follower of God's call in our life given these worldly demands? What is the relationship between God's call to salvation and to faithfulness in our daily lives?

Over the summer, we will be asking these questions by consulting three sources of God's call in our lives: scripture, sacrament, and saints. We'll start by looking to scripture for stories of conversion of life. Scripture is full of rich, ambiguous characters who, in their ambiguity, make it possible for us to imagine ourselves being called by God into new life. Next we'll take up the sacraments as means of grace. The sacraments, like the stories of conversion in scripture, are formative and reveal God's call for us. We'll take up Baptism, Eucharist, and Reconciliation as three formative practices that invite us into the vocation of discipleship. Finally, we'll look at the strange and (extra)ordinary lives of some of the saints who populate our liturgical calendar. We'll ask, who are these people? And in asking we'll look for the ways that God called them into lives of discipleship.

Join us on Summer Sundays from 9:15 am—10 am on the 3rd Floor of St. Margaret's House.

Notes & News

The flowers adorning our worship this morning are offered by Myra & Dave Anthony to the Greater Glory of God, and in Celebration of their 59th Wedding Anniversary on June 21.

Following our Adult Forum series on Marriage and years of prayer, conversation, and deliberation, the Cathedral Chapter will consider the extending the Sacrament of Marriage to same-sex couples within the Cathedral community at our meeting this coming Tuesday, June 27. An open hearing on the subject inviting any and all to express their positions will be held that evening beginning at 6:30 pm in the sanctuary. Please pray as we continue to discern God's will.

New Happenings Ministries (formerly Camp New Happenings), will host about 20 campers at Camp Alexander Mack the week of July 23. Mother Tina Velthuisen requests your prayers for the board, staff, and campers of this ministry, which will reach beyond the week of camp to change the lives of youth who have a parent who has been, or is currently, incarcerated.

Second Quarter Care & Share:

The Food Bank of Northern Indiana

In May 1993, United Religious Community of St. Joseph County's Hunger Education Task Force accepted the challenge of reestablishing food banking services in north central Indiana. Our first distribution of 6,800 pounds was made in December 1993 to 29 agencies. As our member agencies and donor base grew, we became self-sufficient and large enough to be considered for national certification. In 2006, our organization's name was changed to the Food Bank of Northern Indiana serving Elkhart, LaPorte, Kosciusko, Marshall, Starke and St. Joseph Counties. In 2016, the Food Bank of Northern Indiana distributed nearly 7 million pounds of food to our network of 200 member agencies in our six-county service area.

Today, 14% of northern Indiana residents are food insecure; they don't know when they will eat their next meal. This epidemic is silent. When all residents have food security and access to nutritious foods, we will be even better physically and mentally prepared to take on life's challenges.

Bike & Build

bikeandbuild.org
Pedaling for Affordable Housing

They're on their way...

Thirty-six bicyclists on a cross country ride with the Bike & Build organization are on their way! The Northern US route will once again bring the group to South Bend. Riders will arrive at the Cathedral on the afternoon of Monday, July 10. They have a build day in South Bend on July 11, before a 45 mile hop to Michigan City on July 12.

As in years past, we need volunteers to welcome the group, provide and/or prepare food for several meals, drive the group to their worksite (if necessary—it's pretty close by this year), and drive to whatever recreational opportunity we come up with. Sign-up sheets are on the table at the back of the Church.

For more information about helping with hospitality, please see Kirk Philippsen or contact him at (574) 876-7240.

Bike, Build & PANCAKES: A Summertime Event !

The Bike & Build event, in support of local housing efforts, will bring 36 young men and women to South Bend & Saint James Cathedral for a few days in July. To support their efforts, the Pancake Breakfast Ministry will provide breakfast for them.

Date: Tuesday July 11th
Serving Time: 7:00 am – 8:00 am
Menu: Pancakes, Sausage, Fruit & Juice
Location: Cathedral Hall

This event will be held in lieu of our regularly scheduled Sunday Pancake Breakfast, which fell on a holiday weekend, anyway. Hence, the use of our resources for Bike & Build.

Anyone wishing to help out cooking, serving, or maintaining the cleanliness of Cathedral Hall and our kitchen... sign-up on the sheet in the back of the sanctuary. Or, let Keith LaPierre know at keithlapierre@sbcglobal.net or at 273-9830.
