Today's Readings

The Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

The Collect of the Day

O God, you have taught us to keep all your commandments by loving you and our neighbor: Grant us the grace of your Holy Spirit, that we may be devoted to you with our whole heart, and united to one another with pure affection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading Genesis 24:34-38, 42-49, 58-67

The man said to Rebekah and her household, 'I am Abraham's servant. The Lord has greatly blessed my master, and he has become wealthy; he has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female slaves, camels and donkeys. And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and he has given him all that he has. My master made me swear, saying, "You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live; but you shall go to my father's house, to my kindred, and get a wife for my son."

'I came today to the spring, and said, "O Lord, the God of my master Abraham, if now you will only make successful the way I am going! I am standing here by the spring of water; let the young woman who comes out to draw, to whom I shall say, 'Please give me a little water from your jar to drink,' and who will say to me, 'Drink, and I will draw for your camels also'—let her be the woman whom the Lord has appointed for my master's son."

'Before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah coming out with her water-jar on her shoulder; and she went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, "Please let me drink." She quickly let down her jar from her shoulder, and said, "Drink, and I will also water your camels." So I drank, and she also watered the camels. Then I asked her, "Whose daughter are you?" She said, "The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him." So I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her arms. Then I bowed my head and worshipped the Lord, and blessed the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way to obtain the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son. Now then, if you will deal loyally and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so that I may turn either to the right hand or to the left.' And they called Rebekah, and said to her, 'Will you go with this man?' She said, 'I will.' So they sent away their sister Rebekah and her nurse along with Abraham's servant and his men. And they blessed Rebekah and said to her,

'May you, our sister, become thousands of myriads;
may your offspring gain possession of the gates of their foes.'

Then Rebekah and her maids rose up, mounted the camels, and followed the man; thus the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

Now Isaac had come from Beer-lahai-roi, and was settled in the Negeb. Isaac went out in the evening to walk in the field; and looking up, he saw camels coming. And Rebekah looked up, and when she saw Isaac, she slipped quickly from the camel, and said to the servant, 'Who is the man over there, walking in the field to meet us?' The servant said, 'It is my master.' So she took her veil and covered herself. And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent. He took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Gradual Psalm 45:11-18

- ¹¹ "Hear, O daughter; consider and listen closely; *
forget your people
and your father's house.
- ¹² The king will have pleasure
in your beauty; *
he is your master;
therefore do him honor.
- ¹³ The people of Tyre are here with a gift; *
the rich among the people seek your favor."
- ¹⁴ All glorious is the princess as she enters; *
her gown is cloth-of-gold.
- ¹⁵ In embroidered apparel she is brought to the king; *
after her the bridesmaids follow
in procession.
- ¹⁶ With joy and gladness they are brought, *
and enter into the palace of the king.
- ¹⁷ "In place of fathers, O king,

you shall have sons; *
you shall make them princes
over all the earth.

- ¹⁸ I will make your name to be remembered from one generation to another; *
therefore nations will praise you for ever and ever."

Second Reading Romans 7:15-25a

I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good. But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.

So I find it to be a law that when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God in my inmost self, but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!

Gospel Reading Matthew 11:16-19, 25-30

Jesus said, "To what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market-places and calling to one another, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.'"

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, "He has a demon"; the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, "Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners!" Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.'

At that time Jesus said, 'I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

'Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.'

The Vocation of Discipleship

In the midst of our busy lives it can be difficult to hear God's call. How do we know what God is calling us to? What does it mean to be a follower of God's call in our life given these worldly demands? What is the relationship between God's call to salvation and to faithfulness in our daily lives?

This summer we are asking these questions by consulting three sources of God's call in our lives: scripture, sacrament, and saints. We've started by looking to scripture for stories of conversion of life. Scripture is full of rich, ambiguous characters who, in their ambiguity, make it possible for us to imagine ourselves being called by God into new life. Next we'll take up the sacraments as means of grace. The sacraments, like the stories of conversion in scripture, are formative and reveal God's call for us. We'll take up Baptism, Eucharist, and Reconciliation as three formative practices that invite us into the vocation of discipleship. Finally, we'll look at the strange and (extra)ordinary lives of some of the saints who populate our liturgical calendar, looking for ways that God called them into lives of discipleship.

Notes & News

The flowers adorning our worship this morning are offered by Celeste & Rick Hilliard to the Greater Glory of God.

New Happenings Ministries (formerly Camp New Happenings), will host about 20 campers at Camp Alexander Mack the week of July 23. Mother Tina Velthuisen requests your prayers for the board, staff, and campers of this ministry, which will reach beyond the week of camp to change the lives of youth who have a parent who has been, or is currently, incarcerated.

Two high-school students from the Cathedral of Saint James leave this afternoon with a delegation of teenagers from the Diocese of Northern Indiana to attend the Episcopal Youth Event in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma this week. Rose Grantz and Max Thompson will participate in this lively and powerful gathering of young Episcopalians from all around the Episcopal Church. Bishop Sparks—along with many other bishops, dignitaries, and luminaries of the Episcopal Church, will also be there to worship, learn, and grow in faith with the most enthusiastic Episcopalians on the planet. Please keep EYE 2017 in your prayers this week!

Mission & Ministry

Third Quarter Care & Share:

Episcopal Relief & Development | United Thank Offering

Episcopal Relief & Development (www.episcopalrelief.org) works with Church partners and other local organizations to save lives and transform communities worldwide. We rebuild after disasters and empower people to create lasting solutions that fight poverty, hunger and disease. Working in close to 40 countries, our programs impact the lives of approximately 3 million people around the world. Our mandate is taken from Jesus' words found in Matthew 25.

All of Episcopal Relief & Development's international development programs seek to mobilize local resources and expertise toward sustainable, community-led programs that address poverty, hunger and disease. In our disaster response and recovery work, we seek to build resilience and reduce risk at every stage.

United Thank Offering (UTO) is a ministry of The Episcopal Church for the mission of the whole church. Through UTO, men, women, and children nurture the habit of giving daily thanks to God. These prayers of thanksgiving start when we recognize and name our many daily blessings. Those who participate in UTO discover that thankfulness leads to generosity. UTO is entrusted to promote thank offerings, to receive the offerings, and to distribute the monies to support mission and ministry throughout The Episcopal Church and Provinces of the Anglican Communion..

To learn more about how to participate in the United Thank Offering, please watch the video posted at:

A WORD ABOUT PEOPLE WHO APPROACH YOU FOR MONEY

In our urban setting, there are often people who approach church members seeking money for food, shelter, or other needs. If this happens to you, the best option is to refer them to Fr. Brian or Deacon Anne, who can usually offer assistance from discretionary funds.

Bike & Build

bikeandbuild.org
Pedaling for Affordable Housing

They're almost here...

Thirty-six bicyclists on a cross country ride with the Bike & Build organization are on their way! The Northern US route will once again bring the group to South Bend. Riders will arrive at the Cathedral on the afternoon of Monday, July 10. They have a build day in South Bend on July 11, before a 45 mile hop to Michigan City on July 12.

As in years past, we need volunteers to welcome the group, provide and/or prepare food for several meals, drive the group to their worksite (if necessary—it's pretty close by this year), and drive to whatever recreational opportunity we come up with Sign-up sheets are on the table at the back of the Church.

For more information about helping with hospitality, please see Kirk Philippsen or contact him at (574) 876-7240.

Bike, Build & PANCAKES: Tuesday Morning!

The Bike & Build event, in support of local housing efforts, will bring 36 young men and women to South Bend & Saint James Cathedral for a few days in July. To support their efforts, the Pancake Breakfast Ministry will provide breakfast for them.

Date: Tuesday July 11th
Serving Time: 7:00 am – 8:00 am
Menu: Pancakes, Sausage, Fruit & Juice
Location: Cathedral Hall

This event will be held in lieu of our regularly scheduled Sunday Pancake Breakfast, which fell on a holiday weekend, anyway. Hence, the use of our resources for Bike & Build.

Anyone wishing to help out cooking, serving, or maintaining the cleanliness of Cathedral Hall and our kitchen... sign-up on the sheet in the back of the sanctuary. Or, let Keith LaPierre know at keithlapierre@sbcglobal.net or at 273-9830.
