Today's Readings

The Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

The Collect of the Day

O Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, you know our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion on our weakness, and mercifully give us those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask; through the worthiness of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading Genesis 28:10-19a

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went towards Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the Lord stood beside him and said, 'I am the Lord, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.' Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, 'Surely the Lord is in this place—and I did not know it!' And he was afraid, and said, 'How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.'

So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. He called that place Bethel.

Gradual Psalm 139:1-11, 22-23

- ¹ Lord, you have searched me out and known me; *
you know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar.
- ² You trace my journeys and my resting-places *
and are acquainted with all my ways.
- ³ Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, *
but you, O Lord, know it altogether.
- ⁴ You press upon me behind and before *
and lay your hand upon me.
- ⁵ Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; *
it is so high that I cannot attain to it.
- ⁶ Where can I go then from your Spirit? *
where can I flee from your presence?
- ⁷ If I climb up to heaven, you are there; *
if I make the grave my bed,

- you are there also.
- ⁸ If I take the wings of the morning *
and dwell in the uttermost parts
of the sea,
- ⁹ Even there your hand will lead me *
and your right hand hold me fast.
- ¹⁰ If I say, "Surely the darkness
will cover me, *
and the light around me turn to night,"
- ¹¹ Darkness is not dark to you;
the night is as bright as the day; *
darkness and light to you
are both alike.
- ²² Search me out, O God,
and know my heart; *
try me and know my restless thoughts.
- ²³ Look well whether there be any wickedness in me *
and lead me in the way
that is everlasting.

Second Reading Romans 8: 12:25

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Gospel Reading Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

Jesus put before them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, "Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?" He answered, "An enemy has done this." The slaves said to him, "Then do you want us to go and gather them?" But he replied, "No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, 'Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.' He answered, 'The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

The Vocation of Discipleship

In the midst of our busy lives it can be difficult to hear God's call. How do we know what God is calling us to? What does it mean to be a follower of God's call in our life given these worldly demands? What is the relationship between God's call to salvation and to faithfulness in our daily lives?

Join us on Summer Sundays from 9:15 am—10 am on the 3rd Floor of St. Margaret's House.

Choir Call-Out for Sunday, August 6

On Sunday, August 6, we will celebrate both the Feast of the Transfiguration and our patronal feast—the Feast of Saint James—which we are transferring from July 25 (see back page). Our Director of Music, Dr. Steven Wietstock, invites anyone who wishes to sing in the choir for this special occasion to come to rehearsal at 9 am on Sunday, August 6. If you can let him know in advance of your intention to sing in the choir that day, that would be helpful. Come, lend your voice to our special celebration!

IN THE EVENT OF A PASTORAL EMERGENCY
Please contact Fr. Brian Grantz at (574) 340-5150 or

Notes & News

The flowers adorning our worship this morning are offered by Betsy VanderBurg to the Greater Glory of God, and in loving memory of Vance VanderBurg.

Fred & Sharon Swintz, who were married at the Cathedral of Saint James by Dean Robert Royster on August 12, 1967, will return to renew their marriage vows on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Dean Brian Grantz will officiate at this service of prayer and celebration beginning at 11:30 am on Saturday, August 12.

New Happenings Ministries (formerly Camp New Happenings), will host about 20 campers at Camp Alexander Mack the week of July 23. Please pray for the board, staff, and campers.

International Student and Scholar Affairs at Notre Dame is seeking families and individuals to participate in the Family Friendship Program for the 2017-18 academic year. The program pairs international students and scholars with members of the local community to help the students learn more about American culture. Visit international.nd.edu to learn more, and to access the application link.

Mission & Ministry

Third Quarter Care & Share:

Episcopal Relief & Development | United Thank Offering

Episcopal Relief & Development (www.episcopalrelief.org) works with Church partners and other local organizations to save lives and transform communities worldwide. We rebuild after disasters and empower people to create lasting solutions that fight poverty, hunger and disease. Working in close to 40 countries, our programs impact the lives of approximately 3 million people around the world. Our mandate is taken from Jesus' words found in Matthew 25.

All of Episcopal Relief & Development's international development programs seek to mobilize local resources and expertise toward sustainable, community-led programs that address poverty, hunger and disease. In our disaster response and recovery work, we seek to build resilience and reduce risk at every stage.

United Thank Offering (UTO) is a ministry of The Episcopal Church for the mission of the whole church. Through UTO, men, women, and children nurture the habit of giving daily thanks to God. These prayers of thanksgiving start when we recognize and name our many daily blessings. Those who participate in UTO discover that thankfulness leads to generosity. UTO is entrusted to promote thank offerings, to receive the offerings, and to distribute the monies to support mission and ministry throughout The Episcopal Church and Provinces of the Anglican Communion..

To learn more about how to participate in the United Thank Offering, please watch the video posted at:

The Feast of the Transfiguration

Saint James Sunday

Sunday, August 6, 2017

The Feast of the Transfiguration is a major feast in the Christian year appointed for observance on August 6.

The Feast of Saint James, our patron, is appointed for observance on July 25. Due to vacation schedules, it has become our habit to move our Feast day to the nearest convenient Sunday.

This year we get to do both on the same day.

We will celebrate the Holy Eucharist: Rite One at 8 am.

Choir rehearsal for our pick-up choir begins at 9 am.

At 10:15 am, our celebration of the Holy Eucharist will take place in five movements featuring Scripture, Song, Prayer, and Juggling.

Yes, juggling.

After the 10:15 service,

join us for a special hospitality hour

If you can, please bring finger food hors d'oeuvres, vegetables, crackers & cheese, and desserts to share.

Then...

Juggler LaMar Yoder will perform a full show.
(40-45 minutes)

A free will offering will be taken up for Mr. Yoder. His normal fee is $750, so please be generous.

Invite your family, friends, and neighbors!
