Today's Readings

The Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

The Collect of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading Genesis 29: 15-28

Then Laban said to Jacob, 'Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?' Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. Leah's eyes were lovely, and Rachel was graceful and beautiful. Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, 'I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel.' Laban said, 'It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me.' So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

Then Jacob said to Laban, 'Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed.' So Laban gathered together all the people of the place, and made a feast. But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her. (Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.) When morning came, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, 'What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?' Laban said, 'This is not done in our country—giving the younger before the firstborn. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me for another seven years.' Jacob did so, and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife.

Gradual Psalm 105: 1-11; 45b

- <sup>1</sup> O give thanks to the Lord, call on his name,*
make known his deeds among the peoples.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing to him, sing praises to him;*
tell of all his wonderful works.
- <sup>3</sup> Glory in his holy name;*
let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.
- <sup>4</sup> Seek the Lord and his strength;*
seek his presence continually.
- <sup>5</sup> Remember the wonderful works he has done,*
his miracles, and the judgements he has uttered,
- <sup>6</sup> O offspring of his servant Abraham,*
children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
- <sup>7</sup> He is the Lord our God;*

his judgements are in all the earth.
8 He is mindful of his covenant for ever,*
of the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations,
9 the covenant that he made with Abraham,*
his sworn promise to Isaac,
10 which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute,*
to Israel as an everlasting covenant, 11 saying, 'To you I will give the land of Canaan*
as your portion for an inheritance.'
45 that they might keep his statutes and observe his laws.*
Praise the Lord!

Second Reading Romans 8: 26-39

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written,

'For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.'

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present,
nor things to come, nor powers, nor height,
nor depth, nor anything else in all creation,
will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel Reading Matthew 13:31-33; 44-52

He put before them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed
that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air
come and make nests in its branches.'

He told them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.'

'The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.'

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold
all that he had and bought it.'

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a
net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

'Have you understood all this?' They answered, 'Yes.' And he said to them, 'Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.'

The Vocation of Discipleship

In the midst of our busy lives it can be difficult to hear God's call. How do we know what God is calling us to? What does it mean to be a follower of God's call in our life given these worldly demands? What is the relationship between God's call to salvation and to faithfulness in our daily lives?

Join us on Summer Sundays from 9:15 am—10 am on the 3rd Floor of St. Margaret's House.

Episcopal Relief & Development | United Thank Offering

Episcopal Relief & Development (www.episcopalrelief.org) works with Church partners and other local organizations to save lives and transform communities worldwide. We rebuild after disasters and empower people to create lasting solutions that fight poverty, hunger and disease. Working in close to 40 countries, our programs impact the lives of approximately 3 million people around the world. Our mandate is taken from Jesus' words found in Matthew 25.

All of Episcopal Relief & Development's international development programs seek to mobilize local resources and expertise toward sustainable, community-led programs that address poverty, hunger and disease. In our disaster response and recovery work, we seek to build resilience and reduce risk at every stage.

United Thank Offering (UTO) is a ministry of The Episcopal Church for the mission of the whole church. Through UTO, men, women, and children nurture the habit of giving daily thanks to God. These prayers of thanksgiving start when we recognize and name our many daily blessings. Those who participate in UTO discover that thankfulness leads to generosity. UTO is entrusted to promote thank offerings, to receive the offerings, and to distribute the monies to support mission and ministry throughout The Episcopal Church and Provinces of the Anglican Communion.

To learn more about how to participate in the United Thank Offering, please watch the video posted at:

The Feast of the Transfiguration

Saint James Sunday

Sunday, August 6, 2017

The Feast of the Transfiguration is a major feast in the Christian year appointed for observance on August 6.

The Feast of Saint James, our patron, is appointed for observance on July 25. Due to vacation schedules, it has become our habit to move our Feast day to the nearest convenient Sunday.

This year we get to do both on the same day.

We will celebrate the Holy Eucharist: Rite One at 8 am.

Choir rehearsal for our pick-up choir begins at 9 am.

At 10:15 am, our celebration of the Holy Eucharist will take place in five movements featuring Scripture, Song, Prayer, and Juggling.

Yes, juggling.

After the 10:15 service,
join us for a special hospitality hour

If you can, please bring finger food hors d'oeuvres, vegetables, crackers & cheese, and desserts to share.

Then...

Juggler LaMar Yoder will perform a full show.
(40-45 minutes)

A free will offering will be taken up for Mr. Yoder.
His normal fee is $750, so please be generous.

Invite your family, friends, and neighbors!
